

THE CENTRAL ASIAN DESERTS, SAND-DUNES, AND SANDS.

	Page.
Chapter XXVI. The deserts of Ordos, Kum-tagh, Kaschgaria, and Ak-bel-kum	379.
» XXVII. Altitude of dunes, movements of dune-masses	396.
» XXVIII. Ripple-marks; origin of dunes; wave-movements	410.
» XXIX. Sand-currents — ripple-marks, waves, and dunes	426.
» XXX. Origin of sand in the Tarim basin: disintegration products	441.
» XXXI. Origin of sand in the Tarim basin: alluvial sand and already existent marine sand	452.
» XXXII. Specimens of sand, dust, and mud	462.
» XXXIII. From the Anambaruin-gol to the desert-range	471.
» XXXIV. From the desert ranges to the Kuruk-tagh	484.

GENERAL HYDROGRAPHY OF THE TARIM SYSTEM.

Chapter XXXV. Tschernoff's expedition	503.
» XXXVI. General hydrographical relations of the Tarim-basin	515.
» XXXVII. Characteristics of the Tarim to Karaul	529.
» XXXVIII. High-water periods. — The Tarim from Karaul to Kara-koschun	541.
» XXXIX. River and lake statistics	553.

THE HYPOMETRICAL RELATIONS OF THE TARIM BASIN.

Chapter XL. Contour-lines of the upper Tarim basin	565.
» XLI. Hypsometrical relations of lower Tarim basin and of Kuruk-darja	576.
» XLII. Methods of calculating the altitudes above sea-level, by Dr. N. Ekholm	585.
Table 1. The Tarim river from Lajlik to Jangi-köl	588.
Table 2. The Tarim river (western branch) from Jangi-köl to Kum- tschapghan	592.
Table 3. The Tarim river (western branch) from Jangi-köl to Kum- tschapghan	593.
Table 4. The Tarim river (eastern branch) from Tokus-tarim to Jangi-köl	594.
Table 5. The Tarim delta, environs of Kara-koschun	594.
Table 6. Tarim river (eastern branch) from Tokus-tarim to Kepek-uj	596.

POPULATION OF EAST TURKESTAN.

Chapter XLIII. Population of East Turkestan	599.
---	------

THE RUINS OF LÔU-LAN.

Chapter XLIV. The ruined houses of Lâu-lan	619.
» XLV. Towers, wood-carvings etc. of Lâu-lan	637.
» XLVI. Transcription of geographical names in Central Asia. By Dr. K. B. Wiklund	647.
Geographical names.—List of abbreviations	661.