

latter, politely asking to be permitted to know what gentlemen comprised the board of the Urumchi society for the preservation of antiquities.

From some obscure source in Urumchi there had also circulated a rumour that the Chinese members of the expedition were in some way connected with the murder of YANG. It was thus apparent that we had enemies in Urumchi who were doing what they could to damage us by spreading malicious slanders.