

hardships of travel—poor food, unhealthy accommodation, rain, heat, cold, etc.—which to a man fifty-six years of age when he started, and with an injured spine, were in themselves sufficiently serious.