

were poor at drill but very good with the bugle. Pereira heard the Officers' Call, and looking out saw eighteen soldiers, preceded by buglers playing, escorting a poor lama who had been sentenced to have his right forefinger cut off. Later the soldiers returned preceded by bagpipes playing "The Campbells are coming".