

first month among the Cathayers) that new year's feast is celebrated with great magnificence, and with illuminations kept up all the night.