

pūlād : Turk. « Eastern steel ».
 See ANDANIQUE, p. 42.
pūlād : in Pers. means Eastern steel.
 See ANDANIQUE, p. 42.
Pūlau Kundur : Malay, means « Gourd Island ».
 See CONDUR, p. 405.
Pygmies.
 See FEMELES (ISLAND OF WOMEN), p. 674.
Pyū : in the 18th cent., the Chin-ch'ih
 were represented as of... origin.
 See ÇARDANDAN, p. 606.

πάμβαξ : Greek, borrowed from Middle Pers. pānbāk, « cotton ».
 See COTTON, p. 427.
παμβάκιον : Greek, borrowed from Middle Pers. pānbāk, « cotton ».
 See COTTON, p. 427.
« Παχούριος » : according to a passage copied from Faustus of Byzantium by Procopius, this is Sapor II, the Sassanian king.
 This should really be an example of the use of the title of « son of Heaven » for one of the four (or five) Sons of Heaven of the Chinese texts, and one who is not the Chinese Emperor.

 See FACFUR, p. 656. πινικόν : (Periplus Maris Ery-thraei) this may refer to the textiles obtained from the Pinna.
 See COTTON, p. 530.