

Polygamy, has responsibilities, 13; suggests concentrated wealth, 150
 Pon-bo, relation of, to Lamaism, 167
 Potala, when enlarged, 197
 Prayer, many forms of, in Tibet, 123
 Purgatory, Camp, our enforced stay in, 97

R

Race, characteristics of, difficult to trace, 147
 Railway, charges of, compared with caravan, 181; cost of, for Tibetan service, 183
 Ras Worke, his conduct in Abyssinia, 70
 Rawal Pindi, arrival at, 140
 Relief, arrival of, at Camp Purgatory, 104
 Religious creed, effect of, on barbarians, 188
 Roads, character of, in Tibet, 180
 Rockhill, Mr. W. W., views of, on Tibetan situation, 244
 Royal Geographic Society, paper for, by author, 281
 Rudok, our effort to reach, 79; our false move concerning, 81; our failure to find road to, 89; impossibility of reaching, 106
 Russia, lack of general education in, 14; probable future effect of Siberia on, 15; Church and State in, 17; probable progress of reform in, 18; racial units composing, 19; effect upon, of conquest of Turkestan, 19; permission required for leaving, 24; preponderance of, in Chinese Turkestan, 41; how referred to in the Bible, 46; attack by, on India feared by England, 219; possible measures of, in Tibet, 222; no evidence of her activity in Tibet, 229; proposal by, for modification of Treaty, 239

Russo-Chinese Bank, branch of, in Kashgar, 49

S

Samarcand, character of people in, 9
 Sasar, mountain and camp so named, 114; splendid scenery of, 120
 Sikkim, conquest of, by British, 210; importance of, 212
 Sind Valley, entrance into, 135
 Spencer, Herbert, quotation from, 214; correction of, 215
 Somaliland, small number of British in, 246
 Songs of Ladaki people, 285
 Soudan, small number of British in, 246
 Srinigar, description of, 1
 Sullivan, Colonel, caravan of, 138
 Survey, methods of, on plateau, 76
 Stein, Dr., discovery of MS. by, 61

T

Taj Mahal, monument to a wife, 13
 Tamerlane, love of, for a wife, 12
 Taldyk Pass, view from, 28
 Tarim Basin, desiccation of, 271
 Tarim River, streams composing it, 51