

Tea, importance of, in Tibet, 181; cost of, in Tibet, 182; from China preferred in Tibet, 233; importation from India contemplated, 232, 297

Telegraph, Pekin to Kashgar, 37

Tibet, cheerful songs of, 117; substantial houses of, 123; native drink of, 123; appearance of women of, 124; area of, 143; effect of its elevation on character, 148; general character of people of, 146; difficulties as to cleanliness in, 149; monasticism in, 156; exclusion policy in, why adopted, 205; fear of Great Britain in, 228; attack upon, an international question, 245; valueless to British interests, 245; understanding in, of Act of Grace, 258; military movements on plateau of, 282; polite manners in, 317; occupation of its territory, 320

Trade, British demand for freedom of, 295

Treaty, not signed by Dalai Lama, 237; emasculation and ratification of, 248; modification of, 255; secret, between Russia and Tibet, rumour of, 308; secret, between Russia and Tibet, denial of, 312; text of, as made by Younghusband, 318

Trees, first seen in fifty days, 120

Tsongkapa, compared to Luther, 171

Turcoman, character of, 9

Turkestan, history of, 260; conquest of, 264

Turkestan, Chinese, open to Russian attack, 42; views of natives concerning Powers, 42; area of, 142; career of Yakoob Bey in, 272

Turkestan, Russian, telegraph in, 27; garrisons in, 27

Turner, mission of, to Tibet, 201

V

Volcanic action, where noted, 278

W

Washington, diplomatic inquiry from, 239

Y

Yak, reliable beast for glacier travel, 125; use of, in China and Tibet, 180

Yarkand, character of people in, 9; wholly Asiatic, 50

Yatung, establishment of market at, 297

Yellow Peril, estimate of, 38

Younghusband, Colonel, negotiations by, 235; logical treaty made by, 256

Yue-che, attack by, upon Tarim Basin, 261