

STORM AND SUNSHINE IN SOUTH AFRICA.

By Rosamond Southey. Edited by Frances Slaughter. With Illustrations. Demy 8vo.

This book has the merit of being written from the inside of the political and social life of South Africa. With near relatives holding important posts in the Government of Cape Colony, and with many relations and friends holding appointments in the country, Miss Southey has been able to make the most of her unusual gifts of observation, both in describing the life at Cape Town and in the up-country towns and farms. An expedition made by her sister, Mrs. Bruce Steer, alone through Zululand, and her experiences during the late war, are also given. General Sir John Dartnell, K.C.B., C.M.G., and Colonel George Mansel, C.M.G., contribute accounts of fishing and lion-shooting expeditions, and the history of the Nongai, or Zululand Native Police, as well as of the Natal Police.

INDIA AND TIBET. Being a History of the

LION AND DRAGON IN NORTHERN CHINA.

By R. F. Johnston, M.A. (Oxon.), F.R.G.S., District Officer and Magistrate, Weihaiwei; Formerly Private Secretary to the Governor of Hong-Kong, etc.; Author of "From Peking to Mandalay," With Map and Illustrations. Demy 8vo.

In this book will be found the only full description that exists of the British dependency of Weihaiwei—the three hundred square miles of Chinese territory that have been under British control since 1898. The author, the District Officer and Magistrate of Weihaiwei, has seen service in both south and north China, and has travelled throughout the length and breadth of the Chinese Empire. His book, although primarily dealing with the "Cinderella of the British Empire," practically touches the whole relations of Europeans to Chinamen in their own land. Mr. Johnston's practical experience in the country, the nature of his official duties, and his knowledge of the language have given him unique opportunities for acquiring an intimate knowledge of the Chinese people and their customs. Much of the information given in these pages has been collected from various historical and topographical works in the Chinese language, but the greater part has been gathered at first hand in the course of several years' residence among the people. Lovers of folk-lore, students of sociology and of comparative religions, as well as of the condition and destiny of the people of China, should find in this book much that is new and of permanent value.
