

Near to the W of camp B 62, S of Qum-darya.

- 23:1-3. Three potsherds of hard-burnt ware, blue-grey or reddish. Recalling Han ware.
23:4-5. Two small flint flakes.
23:6. Chip of light-green flint.
23:7. Small piece of lead.
23:8. Small piece of iron.

Scattered finds between camp B 62 and a point 4.5 km. W of it, near the right shore of Qum-darya.

- 24:1-21. Twenty-one potsherds of fairly uniform ware, hard-burnt, reddish-brown to blue-grey.
24:22-23. Two small iron fragm.

1600 m. SW of camp B 62, S of Qum-darya.

- 25:1. Potsherd of brownish and blue-grey ware, intermixed with sand.
25:2. Irregular core of light-brown flint or agate.
25:3-4. Two small flint flakes.
25:5. Small flint scraper; indistinct type.
25:6. Small flint chip.
25:7. Bifacial implement of light-green flint. Coarse knife, unfinished? L. 55 mm. Br. 29 mm. Pl. 5:10.
25:8. Chip of green flint.
25:9. Flat piece of light-red chert with green striation. A little chipped along two edges. L. 105 mm.
25:10. Pebble of grey flint, one side struck off by man.

S of Qum-darya, between finds Nos. 25 and 27.

- 26:1-5. Four complete and one fragmentary coins with thick verdigris. The shape recalls that of Wu-ch'u.
26:6. Bronze socket, cylindrical with a small perforation 1 cm. below the rim. Probably a mounting for the lower end of the handle of a Ko-weapon. L. 57 mm. Diam. 33 mm. Pl. 31:10.

Between camp B 61 and B 62, about 4 km. S of the latter.

- 27:1-5. Five potsherds of a thin-walled, light-red vessel with slightly projecting rim.

About 2 km. SSW of camp B 61, S of Qum-darya.

- 28:1. Potsherd from the rim of a vessel with straight neck and a plain moulding 1 cm. below the rim. Red, rather thin ware intermixed with coarse sand.
28:2. Small potsherd with traces of applied decoration. Thin, brownish-red ware.
28:3-10. Eight potsherds of the same ware as —:1.
28:11. Part of small core of grey flint.
28:12-14. Three flint flakes.
28:15. Fragm. of arrow-point of green flint. The base shaped into a short tang. Br. 14 mm. Pl. 4:14.
28:16. Arrow-point, willowleaf-shaped, of translucent agate. L. 29 mm. Br. 10 mm. Pl. 4:13.
28:17. Flint scraper?, irregular.
28:18. Small knife of green flint, nearly crescent-shaped. 36×19 mm. Pl. 4:6.
28:19. Bifacial implement of dark-green chert, one end straight and unworked, the other end convex. 29×31 mm. Pl. 4:17.
28:20. Oval chip from a flint pebble, worked on one side.
28:21. Oval knife of grey flint, worked on one side. 58×29 mm. Pl. 5:9.
28:22. Small knife of brown flint. 45×19 mm. Pl. 4:9.
28:23-24. Two chips of green flint, slightly worked.
28:25. Roughly worked piece of greenish-grey flint. Unfinished axe?
28:26. Fragm. of a flat piece of quartzite with one edge worked.
28:27. Various flint chips.
Qum-darya, near camp B 61 about 2 km. below Yardang-bulaq.
29:1-4. Four potsherds of uniform reddish-brown ware, rather thin and intermixed with coarse sand. Wind-eroded.