

- Quarantine regulations, lax, ii. 246
 Quelle, Dr. O., Gotha, ii. 144 n.
 Quetta, arrival at, ii. 340; kindness of English officers to author, ii. 341; bid farewell to my servant Riza at, ii. 341; railway journey from, ii. 341
- Rabat-gur, camp pitched at, ii. 22; caravan resting-place at, ii. 23; reservoir of, ii. 24; departure of caravans from, ii. 25
- Racial rivalries in the Caucasus, Russia's power based on, i. 104
- Ragim Khan, Nakichevan, i. 100, 104, 106
- Railway service, dislocation of, at Batum, i. 10
- Rain, effect of, on the salt desert, i. 324, 401
- Rainfall, periods of, in Eastern Persia, ii. 199
- Rainstorms in the desert, ii. 139, 141
- Ramazan, hours of fasting during, i. 34, 46
- Ramel, Baron, Swedish Minister at Constantinople, i. 17
- Rats, enormous, at Poti, i. 13; as carriers of plague infection, ii. 286
- Renz, Herr, Mianeh, i. 139
- Reptiles, poisonous, of Tebbes, ii. 38
- Rest-houses, verminous, i. 32
- Rettel, M. de, French Consul at Tabriz, i. 126
- Rex, Count, German Legation, Teheran, i. 158, 168
- Rhagae (Rhages), i. 169, 173
- Richthofen, F. von, on alluvial deposition, ii. 215
- Rig-i-Iskenderi, sandy area of, ii. 106
- Rig-i-jin*, meaning of the term, i. 307, 374
- Rig-i-kademu, sand-belt of, i. 395
- Rig-i-Neh, sand-dunes of, ii. 247
- Rion, river, dangerous bridges over, i. 13
- Riza, my Persian body-servant from Nasratabad, ii. 295; preparation of, for the journey, ii. 295; his method of dressing, ii. 308; bid farewell to, at Quetta, ii. 341
- Rize, Black Sea coast town, i. 23
- Roads, desert, disused, ii. 229
- Robat, arrival at, ii. 311
- Rocks, varieties of, i. 227, 242, 277, 377; ii. 92, 111, 325
- Rodd, Sir Rennell, ii. 294
- Roghan*, or solidified butter, i. 175
- Roofs, hive-shaped, advantages of, i. 195
- Route, choice of, i. 3, 17
- Rudkhaneh-i-Darin, ii. 16
- Rudkhaneh-i-gez, i. 370, 377
- Rudkhaneh-i-jangal-i-nakho, treacherous bed of, ii. 123
- Rudkhaneh-i-kal, i. 367
- Rudkhaneh-i-kale-bagh, river, ii. 63
- Rudkhaneh-pai-kale, i. 378
- Rud-i-Hanar, drainage-channel, ii. 119
- Rud-i-kadin, old bed of the Hilmend, ii. 301
- Rud-i-piran, ii. 314
- Rud-i-Seistan, the difficulties with dromedaries at, ii. 297
- Ruins, abundance of, in Eastern Persia, explained, ii. 225, 228
- Sadarak, i. 96
- Sadatabad, ii. 63
- Sadfe, arrival at, after crossing the Kevir, i. 371; routes and distances from, i. 373; ruins of old fort near, i. 373; statements as to existence of wild camels in the Kevir, i. 374; legends of treasure near, i. 375
- Sadikabad, ii. 63
- Sadr Azam, Persian Grand Vizier, i. 158
- Sahara melons, i. 308
- Saindek, station-house of, ii. 322; hill of, ii. 323
- St. John, Major Oliver, quoted, ii. 178; on formation of kevir, ii. 179
- St. Petersburg Geographical Society, expedition through Eastern Persia, ii. 145
- Salt caravans, ii. 126, 172
- Salt crust of the Kevir, i. 352, 361
- Salt desert, the great. See Kevir, the
- Salt swamps, dangers of, after rain, i. 208
- Sand-dunes, i. 283, 286, 290; ii. 3, 89, 106; tone emitted by cooling, i. 292; peculiar collection of, i. 296; at Halvan described by Lieutenant Vaughan, ii. 164; position of, with regard to lake basins, ii. 176, 177, 179, 244; Huntington on deposition of, in Seistan, ii. 212; extent of, at Alem, ii. 235; on the edges of the Tebbes basin, ii. 236; unvarying position of, ii. 236; driftsand near Yezd, ii. 238, 242; in Afghanistan and Turkestan, ii. 239; in Tibet, ii. 240; conditions for production of, ii. 240; in North Africa, ii. 241; on the margin of the Kevir, ii. 241; effects of wind on, ii. 243; in North Baluchistan, ii. 330
- Sand-spirals, ii. 133
- Sandstorms, ii. 137, 138
- Saxaul bushes, i. 214; tree-like, ii. 181, 305
- Schneider, Dr., Teheran, i. 158
- Scorpions, ii. 38, 83, 87
- Sedi-khan, i. 69
- Sefid-ab, "white water," i. 254
- Sefid-rud, river, course of, i. 140
- Sehend-kuh, i. 123
- Seidabad, trouble with driver at, i. 132
- Seile-saus, district of, i. 266
- Seistan, Sir Thomas Holdich on former