

- Tus-khanlar, i. 34
Tutins, or canoes, on the Hamun, ii. 263, 268, 271
- Uch-kilisse, i. 71
 Ullu-khanlu, i. 91, 62
- Valleys, longitudinal, characteristic of Persia, i. 136, 140
 Varsehan, i. 43
 Vaughan, Lieutenant H. B., i. 259 n., 381; ii. 151; journeys across the Kevir, ii. 161; estimate of its extent, ii. 163, 166; description of sandhills of Halvan, ii. 164; effects of mirage noted by, ii. 165; account of the Darya -i-nemek, ii. 165; general observations on the Kevir, ii. 166-167; marine shells discovered in the Kevir by, ii. 217
 Vavuk-dag, pass, i. 42
 Veil, use of the, among Persian women, i. 409; strict observance of custom at Tebbes, ii. 43
 Veramin, collapse of carriage at, i. 172; camp pitched at, i. 173; mosques of, i. 173-174; decay of town, i. 174; dependence of district on snowfall, i. 174; preparations for our desert journey at, i. 175, 176; departure from, i. 178
 Vermin, prevalence of, in rest-houses, i. 32, 44
 Vineyards, i. 88
- Walther, Herr, on lake shrinkage, ii. 224, 230, 239
 Water, wild animals' spoor of assistance in locating, i. 228; natural reservoirs of, i. 307; near the Kevir, i. 327, 335; period camels can do without, i. 343
 Water-bags, i. 165, 195, 198
 Water-channels, subterranean, i. 181
 Watershed, an important, i. 56
 Weather, forecast of, i. 185; rapid changes of, i. 206; effect of the Kevir upon the, ii. 10
 Wedel, Herr von, Teheran, i. 154, 156
 Wells, Captain H. L., ii. 180
 Wells, on margin of the Kevir, i. 327, 335; on desert routes, i. 397
 White, Lieutenant, meeting with, near Robat, ii. 311
 Willows, diminutive, i. 48
 Wind: desert, i. 329, 357; west, i. 333; east, i. 401; spring, ii. 122; absence of effect on surface of the Kevir, ii. 231; influence on movement of sand-dunes, ii. 243; prevailing direction of, in Eastern Persia, ii. 244; effect on extent of the Hamun, ii. 262, 264; the 120-days' wind of Seistan, ii. 292; effect on clay formations, ii. 302
 Wind-catchers, i. 321; ii. 23
 Windmills, peculiarly constructed, ii. 135
 Wolves, reward for killing, ii. 19; depre-dations of, ii. 134
- Yadgar, bungalow of, lively scene at, ii. 334
 Yagdarish, i. 52
 Yalais, wheat-fields of, ii. 296
 Yam, station-house and village of, i. 121
Yangal, or clump of trees, i. 290
 Yangi-imam, i. 154
 Yechabad, i. 190
 Yengi-jai, i. 146
 Yezd, route between Chupunun and, i. 302; caravan traffic between Meshed and, ii. 23; driftsand near, ii. 238; Marco Polo on, ii. 242
 Yilasor, i. 70
 Yule, Sir Henry, work on Marco Polo by, ii. 67, 75
- Zebus, ii. 30
 Zoroaster, teachings of, exemplified in the natural conditions of Eastern Persia, i. 262

THE END

Printed by R. & R. CLARK, LIMITED, Edinburgh.