

Class III.—Kurgans of Highly Developed Type.

Late Mohammedan Ruins.

- 1 and 2. Two views of East Kishman Tepe and a Tower of Bricks, half of which have been burnt. No. 23 in Table and in Plate 60.
3. West Kishman Tepe from East. No. 24 in Table and in Plate 60.
4. Gechekran Tepe from South, showing Southern Tower, and smaller heap of ruins in foreground. No. 26 in Table and in Plate 60.
5. Kurtli Tepe from South. No. 27 in Table and in Plate 60.
6. Kurukli Tepe from Northwest. No. 22 in Table and in Plate 60.
7. Churnuk Tepe from South. No. 28 in Table and in Plate 60.
8. Top Tepe from South. No. 21 in Table and in Plate 60.
9. Mud Tower and Mosque near Kurtli Tepe.
10. Old Mosque (?) at East Kishman Tepe.
11. Chilburg Kala, a Ruined Fort near Kirk Tepe.
12. Ruins of Towers and Walls along Old Main Canal of Bairam Ali, South of Modern Town.
13. Kirk Tepe, looking from Southeastern Wall toward Citadel. See Plate 60.