

- Tapestry work from Lou-lan, 152, 153
- Tarim basin, 6-8, 10, 11, 15; its dimensions, 11; oases in, 13; Chinese trade routes through, 19, 20, 22-27; the mingling of cultural influences from China, Persia, and India left their mark on the civilization of this region, 23; the Huns take possession, 25; the Chinese regain control, 25; Buddhism in, 28, 30, 33, 64; aridity of climate, 29; again passes under the domination of the Hephthalites or White Huns, 30; passes to the Western Turks, 31; Chinese regain possession, 31; Tibetan and Arab aggression in, 32; spread of Islamism, and decline of Buddhism in, 33; Eastern Turkish the only language spoken, 33; the population mainly Homo Alpinus type, 33; Tibetan domination in, 33; the Turks acquire control over the western portion, 33; brought under direct Chinese administration (1755), 35; under the misrule of Yakub Beg, 36; Chinese control under the T'ang dynasty ended about A.D. 791, 68; archaeological evidence of Tibetan and Turkish occupation, 116
- Tarim river, 5, 8, 50, 109, 130-133, 156, 275, 279, 280, 284; hydrographic change affecting its course, 151; riverine changes in the terminal branches of, 166
- Tarsagar pass, 296, 326
- Tartary, 5
- Tashkend, 288, 291; battle near, 32
- Tash-kurghan, 47, 299, 330
- Ta-ts'in, 26
- Ta-t'ung, river, 242
- Taun-murun saddle, 293
- Taushkan, river, 284
- Tawakkal, oasis, 56, 57
- Taxila, or Takshasila, 91
- Temples, at Endere, 106; at Miran, 112, 117; at Lou-lan, 143; at Nan-kou-ch'eng, 244; at Khara-khoto, 249; at Bezeklik, 263; at Ying-p'an, 275; at Ming-oi, 278; at Kucha, 281; shrines near Maral-bashi, 285. See also Cave temples
- Terek pass, 294
- Termez, 329
- Textiles, decorated, 143
- Thomas, Prof. F. W., 115, 214
- Thomsen, Professor, 116, 216
- Tibetan banners and drawings, 218
- Tibetan manuscripts, at Khara-khoto, 249; at Idikut-shahri, 262; Buddhist manuscripts, the oldest known specimens, found at Endere, 106; at Miran, 113, 115; at Caves of the Thousand Buddhas, 205, 209, 214
- Tibetan plateaux, 9, 24, 239; lack of resources in, 7
- Tibetans, aggression in Central Asia, 32, 33; occupation of Miran, 112-118; Tibetan domination in the Tun-huang region, 205
- T'ien-shan range (the 'Celestial Mountains'), 2-5, 10, 11, 31, 252-254, 256-259, 277, 278, 280, 281, 284, 285, 289; migrating tribes of, 13, 31, 253; Chinese trade routes along, 24-26, 34
- Tila Bai, servant, 131
- Timur, Emperor, 330
- Tita, or Titus, frescoes at Miran by, 126
- Ti-tsang, see Kshitigarbha
- Toilet outfits, 268
- Tokhari, see Kuchean
- Tokhta Akhun, guide, 111, 112, 130, 137, 142, 148
- Tolai-shan range, 241
- Torgut Mongols, 248
- Tower of Sirkip, 262
- 'Town of the Dragon', 160
- Toyuk, rock-cut Buddhist grottoes, 262
- Trees, trunks of ancient, 84; rows of fallen trunks in the Lop desert, 134
- Tsai, General, 243
- Tukhara, old seats of the, 107
- Tumanovich, Captain, 312
- Tumshuk, village, 285
- Tun-huang oasis, 15, 170, 173, 193, 198, 210; Chinese punitive expedition sets out from, 22; Tibetan mastery over, 32; the ancient route from the Tarim basin to, 116, 129, 130, 145-162; Chinese establish an agricultural military colony in, 180; traversing Marco Polo's route from the Lop-nor marshes to Tun-huang, 163-192; Buddhist piety at, 199, 213; Manichaeism in, 216; Old Wall near, see Old Wall; cave shrines near, see Caves of the Thousand Buddhas
- Tun-huang, river, 171
- Tupchak plateau, 326
- Turdi, guide, 56, 58-61
- Turfan, 11, 24, 25, 254, 255, 275; wrested by the Chinese from the Western Turks, 31; Buddhism, Manichaeism, and Nestorian Christianity in, 33, 259; painted silk scroll discovered, 229; the Turfan basin, and the terminal salt lake, 256; irrigation by a system of Karezes, 257; climate, agricultural conditions, and trade, 257; its political history, 258; under Uigur rule, 258, 259; the Mongol conquest, 259; ex-