

182. REMAINS OF ANCIENT WATCH-TOWER AND QUARTERS, T. VI. B., TUN-HUANG LIMES, BEFORE EXCAVATION, SEEN FROM WEST.

183. RUBBISH-STREWN SLOPE BELOW RUINED WATCH-TOWER T. VI. B., IN COURSE OF EXCAVATION.

The splintered piece of timber held by labourer marks the spot where hundreds of Chinese records on wood, all of 1st century B.C., were discovered close to surface.