

$7\frac{1}{2}'' \times 5''$, showing string-hole and remains of 5 ll. The total number of ll. would have been 7, and the total width about 7". Frs. cannot have belonged to Pōthī of No. 480; but they may belong to another Pōthī of the Saddharma-puṇḍarīka, perhaps No. 506. Another fr. shows only fol. No. 471 and traces of a few letters. No. 485, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 22. Seventeen frs., including 15 minute ones, of Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta; on soft, thin, whitish paper. A larger fr., $8'' \times 3\frac{3}{4}''$, shows remains of 4 ll. as well as upper portion of string-hole circle, interrupting 4th l.; accordingly the full width of the fol. should be about $7\frac{1}{2}''$ with 7 ll. Fol. No. 145 stands on the top L. corner, scribbled in fine cursive. Text in verses (ślokaś), but not identified. No. 486, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 23. Mutilated fol., $1' 7\frac{1}{2}'' \times 8\frac{1}{2}''$, showing circle of string-hole, but no L. margin with fol. No. It has 8 ll., and belongs to same large script Pōthī of Saddharma-puṇḍarīka, as described in Nos. 480-2. Its text corresponds to Kern ed., ch. i, p. 21, l. 19 to p. 22, l. 9. No. 487, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 24. Two frs. in Skr. and Upright Gupta, both from same Saddharma-puṇḍarīka, as in Nos. 480-2, 487. (1) a fr., about $6'' \times 8\frac{1}{2}''$, from middle of fol., with text corresponding to Kern ed., ch. xvi, pp. 330, 331. (2) a small fr., $3'' \times 1\frac{1}{4}''$, from lower part of middle of a fol., with remains of 4 ll., corresponding to Kern ed., ch. viii, p. 203. No. 488, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 26. Two frs. of a large script Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta. Probably belonging to Pōthī in No. 480, or to that in No. 485. No. 490, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 27. Thirteen frs. (including 6 minute) of large script Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta, much sand-rubbed, and 'originally found folded'. Verse Nos. found on three frs. seem to show that all thirteen frs. probably belong to one fol. Verses cannot be traced in Saddharma-puṇḍarīka. No. 491, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 28. Three frs. in Skr. and Upright Gupta, probably from Saddharma-puṇḍarīka; one being from same Pōthī as in Nos. 480 ff.; the other from same Pōthī as in No. 485. No. 492, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 29. Ten very small frs. of Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta. Cf. No. 486. No. 493, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 30. b. Five small and eight minute frs. of large script Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta. They probably belong to Pōthī in No. 480, or to that in No. 485. See No. 492. No. 495, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 31. Numerous minute frs. of large script Pōthī apparently, in Skr. and Upright Gupta. No. 496, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 32. Seven frs. of large script Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta; probably portions of Saddharma-puṇḍarīka in No. 480, but not identified. No. 497, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 33. Numerous minute frs. of several fols., caked together and inseparable, belonging to large script Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta. No. 498, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 34. Twelve minute frs. of a large script Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta, probably the same as in No. 480, or in No. 485. No. 499, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 35. Numerous minute frs. of large script Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta; probably of Pōthī in No. 480, or in No. 485. No. 500, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 36. Five frs. of Pōthī of the Saddharma-puṇḍarīka in Skr. and Upright Gupta. Two of them are the L. and R. ends of fol. 33 of Pōthī described in No. 480. A third is portion of L. end of fol. 65; and the fourth and fifth are minute frs. from same Pōthī. Text of fol. 33 corresponds to Kern ed., ch. i, pp. 24, 25; but numbering of verses differs. No. 501, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 37. Many minute frs., embedded in mud; in Skr. and Upright Gupta. No. 502, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 38, 42. A number of large frs. in Skr. and Upright Gupta from large script Pōthī of Saddharma-puṇḍarīka, apparently all from chaps. xvii-xxiii. They are of thin, dun-coloured paper, rather rotten, and sticking together. Among them are some large pieces of fols., corresponding to Kern ed.: (1) ch. xvii, p. 345, l. 19 to p. 349, l. 7; (2) ch. xviii, p. 367, ll. 1 to 10; (3) ch. xix, p. 377, l. 6 to p. 378, l. 5; (4) ch. xix, p. 378, l. 6 to p. 379, l. 4; (5) ch. xix, p. 379; (6) ch. xix, p. 379, ll. 5-13; (7) ch. xix, p. 380, ll. 1-10; (8) ch. xix, p. 380, l. 11 to p. 381, l. 10; (9) ch. xxi, p. 397, l. 9 to p. 399, l. 4; (10) ch. xxiii, p. 435, l. 9 to p. 436, l. 6; (11-19) nine frs., not yet identified. Also numerous minute frs.

The largest piece measures $1' 8'' \times 7''$, and is a nearly complete fol. The full size probably was $1' 10'' \times 7''$.

All these frs. probably belong to same Pōthī as described in No. 485. See also Nos. 492, 499, 500, 504, 506, 507. No. 503, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 39. Thirteen minute frs. of large script Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta, perhaps belonging to Pōthī in No. 480, or to that in No. 485. No. 504, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 41. Four minute frs. of large script Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta, probably belonging to the Pōthī in No. 480, or to that in No. 485. No. 506, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 47. Numerous minute frs. of a Pōthī, probably in Skr. and Upright Gupta; on stiff, brittle paper; illegible. No. 507, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 48. Numerous minute frs., some sticking together, of a Pōthī in Skr. and Upright Gupta, apparently belonging to Pōthī in No. 507. No. 508, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 57. a. Twenty-four frs. of several Pōthīs in Skr. and Upright Gupta. Twenty frs. belong to a Prajñā-pāramitā, incl. of two nearly complete, but damaged. Found folded up in a bundle; cf. above, p. 161. No. 509, Hoernle Reg.

Kha. ix. 57. b. A practically complete fol., in places damaged, and illegible; 9 ll. of writing in Skr. and Upright Gupta. Fol. marked No. 2-- and containing apparently a portion of the Bodhisattva-piṭaka; see obv. l. 4. Found in bundle of folded up papers of Kha. ix. 57. a. No. 510, Hoernle Reg. $9\frac{1}{8}'' \times 2\frac{7}{8}''$.

Kha. ix. 57. c. Seven small frs., damaged, nearly illegible, in Skr. and Upright Gupta. No. 511, Hoernle Reg.

Dar. 001. [From Darabzan-dong; see above, p. 199.] Mass of decayed frs. of Pōthī, apparently in Skr. and Upright Gupta. Large script, legible in parts. No. 543, Hoernle Reg.
