

- sgraffiti: mod., 34; (Endere) 275 sq., 286; (Ch'ien-fo-tung) 820; (Wan-fo-hsia) 1111 sqq.
- Sha-chou, ('City of Sands'): T'ang designation of town of Tun-huang (q. v.), 578, 791; in T'ang Annals, 293, 298, 306, 320; after T'ang times, 320; in Hsüan-tsang's biography, 321 n. 24; M. Polo's Sachiu, 560 sq.; ruined walls of, 608; old site of, ib.; historical connexion of Kua-chou oasis with, 1092.
- Sha-chou-Khotan itinerary in T'ang-shu, 298 sq., 306, 320 sq., 327, 342 sq., 620 sqq.; translated by M. Chavannes, 1330.
- Sha chou chih*: Chinese text, 716; published by Mr. Lo Chên-yü, ib.; approx. date, ib.; O-tsang in, ib.; Limes wall in, 734 sq.; legend of 'Êrh-shih spring' in, 1090 n. 4.
- Sha-ch'üan-tzû, locality, 1143.
- Sha-hsi*, well of, 418, 419, 555; location of, 557 and n. 20.
- Sha-ho* ('River of Sand'), desert, 1144. See also Mo-ho-yen.
- Sha-t'o: tribe of Western Turks, 1129; mentioned by Kao Chü-hui, ib.; transferred to Kan-su border, ib.
- Shāh Bēg, envoy of prince of 'Bolor', 33.
- Shāh Kalandar-shahri, ruin, 1232.
- Shāh Khush-āmad, prince of 'Bolor', 33.
- Shāh Rukh, Mongol prince of Herāt: his embassy, 299, 1123 sq.; Lop desert route used by, 563; at Karaul (i. e. Chia-yü kuan), 1124 sq.; idols of Kan-chou mentioned by, 1132.
- Shāh-tokhtaning-köli, lagoon, 455; list of finds near, 456.
- Shahyār, town, 1239.
- Shahyār River, see Inchike.
- Shait-kāk, natural rock-cistern, 1302.
- Shākul, canal, 203.
- shale, fr., 251; disc, 290.
- Shamsuddīn, Naik, assistant, 533 n.
- Shan, kingdom of, 333; identified with Kizil-sangir (i. e. Singer), 334; called Mo-shan by Li Tao-yüan, 326, 334 n. 6, 420; location of, 333 sq., 420, 1231.
- Shan-hsi, soldiers from, 750, 751 n. 49.
- Shan-ni-lo-shih*, valley, see Adinzai Valley.
- Shan-shan (Shen-shen): territory and town of, 325; wrong location of town at Na-chih (mod. Lapchuk), 337 n. 13, 343; and at mod. Pichan, 337 n. 13; known as Lou-lan in Han times, 306, 320 sq., 327, 333 sqq.; between T'ang and Han times, 322 sqq.; name applied to Lop by P'ei Chü and Sung Yün, 323; Fa-hsien's journey to and description of Shan-shan (i. e. Charkhlik), 323 sq., 334 n. 4; Li Tao-yüan's notice, 324 sqq.; his extract from Former Han Annals, (Lou-lan) 325, 333 sqq.; name changed from Lou-lan (q. v.), 325, 333; S. in Wei liu, 328, 341; in Chin Annals, 328, 341, 408; in Later Han Annals, 329 sqq.; threatened by Hsien, king of Yarkand, 329; An and Kuang, kings of Sh., 330; expedition under Pan Ch'ao to, 330 sq.; Hun troubles after Pan-ch'ao, 331; Hun raids, 337 sq.; Pan Yung's military colony (see Lou-lan), 331 sq.; his operations against Turfan, 332 sq.; assisted by Shan-shan, 332, 340; Lou-lan included in Shan-shan territory in Later Han Annals, 332 n. 21; Sh. capital (Yü-ni, q. v.), 333; Chao P'o-nu's expedition against Lou-lan, 336, 339, 407; Lou-lan and the 'Salt Marsh' in Ssü-ma Ch'ien's history, 338; Lou-lan between Huns and Chinese, 339 sqq.; the Po-lung-tui, eastern extremity of Lou-lan, 340 sqq.; kingdom re-established as Shan-shan, 342 sq.; anc. name of Lou-lan retained for colony N. of Lop-nör, 343; capital of Lou-lan and its supposed transfer, 343 sq.; Sh. identified with Lou-lan in Ch'ien Han shu, 344; Sh. in T'ang-shu, 1331. See also I-hsün, Lop, Lou-lan.
- population and officials of: in Former Han Annals, 333; their account of the people, physical features, etc., of, 335.
- routes and distances from, in Former Han Annals, 295, 333 sq.; P'ei Chü's notice of routes through, 323, 426; routes leading W. of, in Later Han Annals, 329, 416; Pan Ch'ao's reference to desert route to, 331; route to Wu-lei, Singer, and Turfan from, 334; route S. of Lop-nör to Sh., 340; summary of anc. Lop topography and routes, 344 sq.
- seal impressions of Chinese official of, from Niya Site, 230, 239, 260, 262, 266, 329; Sh. mentioned in tablets from Niya Site, 219, 329.
- Shan-yü*, paramount Hun chief, 695.
- Shandur Pass, 42.
- Shang-mi, 43; Hsüan-tsang's description of, 43 sqq.; identified with Mastūj, 44. See also Chü-wei.
- Shang-ssü*, division of Ch'ien-fo-tung cave-temples, 822.
- Shang-Yen-chia, see Yen-chia.
- Shao-hsi, see Chinese coins.
- Shao-hsing, see Chinese coins.
- shavings from wooden tablets, indicate fresh use of old stationery, 375, 598, 646, 685, 763.
- Shawitakh Pass, 56 sq.
- Shayōs, glacier, advance of, 51.
- Shē lun chang*, Chinese MS. fr. of, 918.
- Shē-mi: identified with Kāfiristān, 9 sq., 31; Sung Yün's and Hui-shēng's route through, 9 sq.
- sheaths, wooden, for dagger, 1288, 1292. See also knife-sheath.
- sheep: in Chieh-shieh, 31; near Kum-chapkan, 351; mentioned in Tibetan docs., 1465; soapstone figurine of, 100, 119; sheep in paintings, 1023, 1215.
- sheep pens, 589; ruins used as, (Niya) 240, 245, 427; (Lou-lan) 400, 402, 427; (Mīrān) 427, 490. See also Chong-hassār.
- shelf or rack, wooden, 645.
- shell: frs. of, 1106 sq.; bead, see s. v.; orn., 1314.
- shells, see Linnaea auricularia, snail-shells.
- Shen-hsi: Goëz's Scensi, 1126 n. 25.
- Shên-sung, see Chinese coins.
- shéng*, Chinese pint measure, in Chinese docs., 757.
- shepherd station, ruin used as, 1280. See also sheep pens.
- Shēr 'Alī Khān, Kābulī trader, 676, 703.
- Shera Yögurs, Mongol-speaking tribe at N. foot of Nan-shan, 1129.
- shields: mentioned in Limes docs., 759; represented on stucco relief frieze, plain with bosses, 1193, 1209, 1212; with Gorgoneion, 1193, 1209, 1212, 1219; in paintings, 963, 974, 980, etc.
- Shighnān (Shih-ch'i-ni, territory of the 'Five Ch'ih-ni or Shih-ni): Wu-k'ung in, 17, 64; Kao Hsien-Chih in, 53 sq.; estimated circumference of, 44 n. 20; account of, in T'ang Annals, 64; by Hsüan-tsang, ib.
- shih*, measure of weight, in Limes docs., 758.
- Shih-ch'êng* ('Stone town'): located at Charkhlik, 306, 320, 327, 735; etymology, 321; in Sha chou chih, 734; in T'ang shu, 1331.
- Shih-êrh-tun*, hamlet, 1136; possible early location for Jade Gate, 726; direct route to Hāmī through, 1138.
- shih-fu*, subaltern official, mentioned in Limes doc., 690.
- Shih Huang-ti, Ch'in Emperor, creates 'Great Wall', 722.
- Shih-ch'i-ni*, see Shighnān.
- Shih-li mang-ch'ieh-lo (Shih-li ch'ang-ch'ieh-lo or Shih-li-tan-ch'ieh-lo), Jabgu of Tokhāristān, in Chinese Annals, 29, 30.
- Shih-ni, see Shighnān.
- Shih-pan-tung, ruined town of, 588, 601; wrecked temple and Ya-mén in, ib.
- Shih-pao-ch'êng, locality, 581; ruined fort, 1115.
- shih-shih*, subordinate officer, on Limes, 750.
- Shih shih hsi yü chi*, quoted: on A-nou-ta (Charchan) river, 297; on Lop-nör, 297, 328.
- Shih-tsao, village, 587.
- Shih-wu-fou, roadside shelter, 610.
- Shikchin: hamlet, 1224; 'Ming-oi', S.