

Route

from the VÁNGTU BRIDGE to CHIRGÁŪ,
see No. 42.

Route No. 240.

From the VÁNGTU BRIDGE (Símla) to DÁNKHAR, OR DRÁNKHAR (Spíti).

A secondary route, passable for horses.

Literature: Cunningham's Ladák, p. 156.

Maps: Indian Atlas, sheet 47 (second edition).

Vángtu bridge, 31° 37'; 77° 54' E, at the confluence of the Sátlej and Vángar rivers (level of the bridge 4,932 ft.)—Cross the Sátlej river by a bridge—Continue along the right side of the Vángar valley—Higindhár hill (the highest point of the road)—Yáre—Cross the Vángar river by a bridge.

Grámang, on the left bank of the Vángar river, in the district of Bhabéh (an easy stage)—Continue along the left side of the Vángar valley—Ranamgáŭ—Cross the Julingrangpáni—Yángpa (the highest village of the Vángar valley)—Yebügárh, an old ruined fort—△Hómti—Cross the Gerentráng and several smaller rivers.

△ Nyiamsantáng (an easy stage)—△ Vastishúng—Lanagódi, a pool—Leave the Vángar and continue up the Rógti river—△ Pákshia.

△ Kústerang, at the southern foot of the Tári, or Bhabéh pass (an easy stage)—Cross the Tári, or Bhabéh pass (15,942 ft.)—Cross several small rivers.

△ Tíbel Maidán (12,845 ft.), at the northern foot of the Tári, or Bhabéh pass—Shábangtsu, a small summer village—Padotsrín, ditto.

Mūd (12,421 ft.), on the left bank of the Pin river (an easy march)—Rélhe gáŭ (a very small village)—△ Molumtár—Cross the Kíangti chu river—Tíling (12,275 ft.), on the right bank of the Pin river—Khar—Cross the Pin river—Súngnam—Cross the Pára chu river—Míkhin—Continue along the left bank of the Pin river—Cross the Kúling river.

Kúling—Continue along the left bank of the Pin river—Cross the Pin river.

Dánkhar, or Dránkhar, 32° 6'; 78° 13'; 12,774 ft., near the right bank of the Tódi chu river (a long march).

Route

from the VÁNGTU BRIDGE to RÁMPUR,
see No. 175.

VISHNUPREÁG, routes to and from, see JHÓSIMATH to BÁDRINATH, No. 77.

VÓKHAN, routes to and from, see DRÖS to BOKHÁRA, No. 66.

Route

from YÁRKAND to ÉLCHI, see ÉLCHI to YÁRKAND.

Route

from YÁRKAND to GÍLGIT, see No. 71.

Route

from YÁRKAND to KÁRGALIK,
see No. 93.