

cribes it in p. 586, Vol. 2, of his Typographical Antiquities, but he is not correct in stating that it was obtained from Ford of Manchester. I purchased it from Dyer of Exeter.

« I rather think this edition of Pynson's must have been the first printed in this country. — W. de Worde published an edition in 1499 & again in 1503 — both with woodcuts — an imperfect copy of the latter is in the possession of Mr. Douce... » [suit une liste d'éd. anglaises]. (Note ms. de Sir F. Freeling).

— Pas de titre. Carte et Vig., in-4.

Bib. Grenville. 6714. « That this book was printed by T. Este appears from Herbert's Ames, II, 1022, and from Douce's Illustrations of Shakespeare, I, p. 21. This copy has the last leaf in Ms. and appears to want the title ».

— The Voiage and trauayle of syr John Mandeuile Knight, which treateth of the way toward Hierusalem, and of maruayles of Inde with other Ilands and Countryes. London, 1568, in-4.

A la fin : Imprinted at London in Breadstreat at the nether ende, by Thomas East. an. 1568. The 6 day of october. — Goth. — Vig.

— * The Voyages and Trauailes of Sir Iohn Mandeuille Knight. Wherein is treated of the Way towards Hierusalem, and of the meruailes of Inde, with other Lands and Countries. London, Printed by Thomas Snodham, 1612, in-4.

Goth. — Vig. — Sig. a—u par 4, *u*₄ blanc. (Cat. of the Huth Library, III, p. 896.)

— The // Voyages and // Trauailes of Sir John Mandeuile // Knight... London : // Printed by Thomas Stansby // 1618, in-4, vig. sur le titre et dans le texte.

Bib. Grenville, 6715.